

Executive Report
76-9343

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

14 May 1976

Dear Hal:

As I told you the other night I am most grateful for your letter and the kind thoughts it contained.

I do not worry too much about the press. I know that if I had done anything even remotely wrong I would not be here four years later.

Thanks for your friendly thoughts. Good luck and much happiness and success to you and yours.

Faithfully,

STATINTL

Admiral H. E. Shear
Vice Chief of Naval Operations
Washington, D. C. 20350

VICE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS

1 May 1976

Dear Dick,

I note from comments in the press that you will be retiring in the near future. I also note a lot of uncomplimentary nonsense about you in various articles which I know to be nothing more than pap.

First of all, I want to say I am sorry to see you retiring. There are not many Dick Walters' around, and we can ill afford to lose you. Nonetheless, at this stage of your career, I can see your reasoning for your decision.

I simply want to say that for my money, Dick Walters is a hell of a guy. I value very much our past associations and our friendship. I wish you well in your retirement and the very best of good fortune in future endeavors.

Most sincerely,

LTGEN Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505